No-one should have to choose.

Imagine being forced to choose between providing food, warmth and shelter for you and your family.

Sadly, this is a decision that thousands of Kiwi families living in poverty are forced to make each winter—whether to feed their children at the expense of paying a power bill, or to miss a rent payment—falling further into crippling debt so a family member can visit a doctor.

Winter is one of the busiest times of the year for The Salvation Army, with more people seeking support with the basics of survival—food, warmth and shelter—as well as long-term care such as budgeting, counselling and life skills.

The Salvation Army wants every Kiwi to have enough to make it through a tough winter, and the cold winters beyond. Because no-one should have to choose.

Please support our Winter Appeal today and help ensure that those in need can get the basics of food, warmth and shelter.
