This winter, no-one should be forced to choose.

Imagine being forced to choose between providing food, warmth and shelter for you and your family.

Sadly, this is a decision that thousands of Kiwi families living in poverty are forced to make each winter—whether to feed their children at the expense of paying a power bill, or to miss a rent payment—falling further into crippling debt so a family member can visit a doctor.

Winter is one of the busiest times of the year for The Salvation Army, with more people seeking emergency support with the basics of survival—food, warmth and shelter—as well as long-term care such as budgeting, counselling and life skills.

The Salvation Army wants every Kiwi to have enough to make it through winter, and the cold winters beyond. Because no-one should have to choose.

Last year we helped thousands of families and individuals in need over the cold winter months, with all signs this winter pointing to an even busier time of year for those in poverty.

Supporting the Winter Appeal can be as easy as giving a gift to a family when they need it most; from an emergency food parcel or practical aid package of bedding and clothing, to long-term support such as budgeting sessions, counselling support and expert social care.

Please support our Winter Appeal today and help ensure that those in need can get the basics of food, warmth and shelter.
