Darling Dad,
Memories are treasures, they're jewels from the past. They glitter and shine to see us afar. Your legacy shall live on within us all, the wonder of you, the beauty of your wairua, for this in our hearts you will always remain.
"Moe mai ra"
Aroha tino nui
Your loving whanau

The Te Rito whanau would like to acknowledge and give our sincere thanks to te whanau and friends for your attendance of our late father's tangi. To our whanau who had travelled long distances and cousins from Australia who were unable to come but who shared words of condolences, (Pauline and Masie) Nga mihi nui, Kia Ora. Special thanks to Rona and Annette for your personal care and rapport towards our father over the years. To the doctors, surgeons and nursing staff at the Hawke's Bay Fallen Soldier's Memorial Hospital and to the district nurses and nursing staff at Wairoa Hospital, Kia Ora Koutou. Our heartfelt appreciation to clinical nurse, Sarah Mason and to both Dr Alexander and Dr Amita Chrissy for your ongoing, professional, dedicated care and aroha displayed towards our father. Kia Ora.
