ADVERTISING TERMS AND CONDITIONS
1. In accepting an advertisement for publication, and in publishing it we are doing so in consideration of and relying on the advertiser's express warranty, the truth of which is essential: (a) That the advertisement does not contain anything: that is misleading or deceptive or likely to mislead or deceive or which otherwise breaches the Fair Trading Act 1986. That is defamatory or indecent or which otherwise offends against generally accepted community standards. That infringes a copyright or trademark or otherwise infringes any intellectual or industrial property rights. That breaches any provision of any statute, regulation, by-law or other rule or law, and (b) That the advertisement complies in every way with the Advertising Codes of Practice issued by the Advertising Standards Authority Inc. ("ASA") and with every other code or industry standard relating to advertising in New Zealand, and (c) Publication of the advertisement will not give rise to any liability on our part or in a claim being made against us.
2. The advertiser agrees to indemnify us against all losses or costs arising directly or indirectly from any breach of those warranties by the advertiser and from any costs incurred in our making corrections or amendments in accordance with the terms that follow.
3. We may refuse to publish, or withdraw an advertisement from publication without having to give a reason.
4. We reserve the right to alter, abbreviate or refuse to publish any advertisement if, in our sole opinion, it would be undesirable to publish it. We may adjust material to conform to our technical specifications or for other genuine reasons as long as we do so using reasonable care.
5. We may publish the advertisement on the next available day if there is an error or delay in publication of the advertising as booked.
6. The guarantees contained in The Consumer Guarantees Act, 1993 are excluded where the advertiser acquires, or holds himself out as acquiring goods or services from us for the purposes of a business.
7. The advertiser must tell us as soon as possible if there is an error or omission in any advertisement the advertiser has placed. We will not be liable for any indirect or consequential loss (which includes loss of revenue or profit) from an error or omission or failure to publish and if we are found to have any direct liability for any circumstance that liability is limited to the cost of the space of the advertisement. We accept no responsibility for any error in advertisements placed by any telecommunications method. We will not be liable for errors or omissions arising from the advertiser having given us incorrect instructions, or in any circumstances where a proof has been submitted and approved by the Advertiser.
8. All advertisements created or set and published by The Wairoa Star remain the property of The Wairoa Star.
9. If payment for advertising is not made by due date the advertiser will be liable for interest at market rates and all costs of recovery commissions and collection fees.
10. The Wairoa Star is subject to the New Zealand Press Council. Complaints are to be first directed in writing to editorial@wairoastar.co.nz. If unsatisfied, the complaint may be referred to the Press Council, PO Box 10-879, The Terrace, Wellington 6143. ISSN 1170-0971 (Print). ISSN 2324-1802 (Online).

Do you have energy, vision, the ability to think creatively, a human rights focus and a passion for working with disabled people?
Then you need to consider the following opportunity!

Community Support Workers

Part time
CCS Disability Action is committed to including all people within our communities. We highly value diversity and promote difference. We are seeking a like-minded person to join our team in the northern Hawkes Bay region.
This role offers you an exciting opportunity to use and develop your skills within the greater Wairoa community including Nuhaka and surrounding areas.
Your responsibility will be to ensure that our work undertaken with disabled people, their family/whānau, and our related community partners, is of high quality.
We are looking for people who:
• Love working with others to help them achieve their goals.
• Have strong connections to the community.
• Are enthusiastic and have lots of interests.
• Are a team player but can work independently.
• Can write a clear, brief activity report.
• Able to provide personal cares and household management.

Previous experience working with people with high and complex needs is an advantage. Depending on the role, you would need to be available to work up to 30 hours per week and could include evenings and weekends.
CCS Disability Action builds our work on three core documents; UN Convention of the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, Te Tiriti o Waitangi and the NZ Disability Strategy. We work within a Human Rights framework and are an EEO employer meaning we make accommodation and openly encourage people with lived experience of disability to apply.
We are committed to ensuring our application process is accessible to everyone. Should you require an alternative method of application please contact Hikihiki.Morgan@ccsdisabilityaction.org.nz or phone: 06 867 1249.

Go to www.ccsdisabilityaction.org.nz/about-us/job-vacancies for the application form and job description.

To apply for this role please provide a completed CCS Disability Action application form a copy of your CV and covering letter. This can be emailed to Hikihiki.Morgan@ccsdisabilityaction.org.nz or posted to:
