Bereavement Thanks

KAWANA, Paul.
 Much love to everyone who has supported our Dad and whanau on his journey. Thank you to whanau and friends who cooked meals and visited while we were at home. Thank you to our Tuahuru whanau who worked tirelessly to feed and support us. Thank you to our Kawana and Akurangi whanau who loved our dad. And lastly thank you to our Aunties and Cousins for your endless support and love.
 Jackson, Wayne, Haley and mokopuna.

LILLEY, Susan Jane.
 Selwyn, Morgan, Emma, Brigid and Hannah would like to sincerely thank all those concerned with the care of our loving wife and mother, Jane, during her final struggle with cancer, your help and kindness was immeasurable. We would also like to thank the Girl Guide Association, Tricia Shields, Wairoa Primary School, Richard Lambert, The Woman's Section Wairoa Branch RNZRSA President, Faye Johnston and Wairoa Branch RNZRSA President, Dint Little, for their wonderful tributes. We would also like to thank one and all for their generous gifts and kind thoughts at this sad time, your words and thoughts of comfort have made this difficult task somewhat easier to bear, again, please accept our humble thanks...

SOLOMON, John.
 We the family of John Solomon would like to express our heartfelt thanks and warmest gratitude to all who travelled from near and far to comfort us during our time of loss. The generosity shown from all to help farewell our beloved dad touched us deeply. Your contributions of koha, kindness shared memories, laughter and prayers will not be forgotten. To our Whakaki whanau that worked endlessly throughout the tangihanga to provide for us and the many manuhiri, no words can express how honoured we are and we humbly thank you one and all. Please accept this as a personal acknowledgement of appreciation.
