This time last year ...

... Sia had lost the trust of her kids. She'd chosen alcohol and an abusive partner over them. When Sia entered The Salvation Army Bridge programme, she was still drunk from the night before.

This year, Sia's a different person. She's now renewing her bonds with her kids and they are starting to trust her again.

And Sia can think about this time next year. You can help provide immediate and long-term support—like food parcels, accommodation and advocacy, counselling, budgeting and practical assistance.

When New Zealand needs us, we need you.

Please donate today and make transformation possible.
