Bereavement Thanks

WESCHE, Malcolm (BUCK).

There are not enough words in the world, nor material things that we could give to thank the many family, friends, and community for all the aroha you shared to awhi us send our dad/partner/papa Buck off. Sorry we cant name you all as the list is endless, but just know you are forever appreciated and loved.

A special thank you to our Uncles & Aunties Minty, Wayne, Irene, Maria, Raewyn, & Ad for your unwavering support, guidance, mahi and love.

To our beautiful whanau. Aunties, uncles, cuzzies, inlaws, nieces and nephews. Thank you for reaching for the stars and bending over backwards to make sure we had little stress or worries during this trying time. From the phone calls, to the organising, to the listening and making it happen, to the travelling, to the waiting, to the homes that were opened, to the kai that was gathered, prepped and cooked with aroha, to the mahi and koha put in from before the sunrise, to the mahi that happened long after the sun set. The love plentiful, and the stories beautiful. We love you and are so blessed to have a whanau as special as you.

To the masses that gifted koha in many different ways, we are so humbled. Just as dad would have wanted, the chiller was overflowing, and the tables still full long after everyone was fed over the week, as were our hearts. Thank you thank you.

A huge mihi to the many ministers and Kaumatua & those on the Pae that embraced and covered our whanau and dad from the home to the marae to the Urupa and up to the farm. We send our love and many blessings to you all.

Thank you to the Knauf family for embracing us, sharing your time, love, condolences, and hearts. We thank you for all the years you looked after our dad, and now us also. We are forever grateful.

Special thanks to Pickering's for looking after our dad from the moment he was taken, until the moment he was returned to us. So respectful, kind, helpful, and patient through this whole process. Such a special gift you all have.

To our Nuhaka community, whanau, and friends. Thank you for embracing our whanau. For taking us in and showing us so much Aroha, and Mana. We are forever blessed to call this place home and the people in it our family. KO WAI RA? NUHAKA

To all of our extended family and friends that came from near and far to celebrate dad's life with us. We knew him as dad. However, as the stories were shared we got to know him in so many different lights. A brother, Loyal friend to old and young, a teacher, a giver, an uncle, cousin, mischief fala, a hard worker, a man of many trades, a kind, generous, humble, man full of Mana with a heart just like Jesus. The turnout definitely a reflection of the lives he had impacted and the hearts he had touched.

We have no words just so much love that we will carry in the deepest parts of our hearts for each and every one of you. Please accept this as a personal thank you from our family to yours.

All our Aroha and more, Forever grateful. Forever humbled. Whanau of Buck Wesche.
