Bereavement Thanks

Charmain Hawley (ma char) Whanau of Charmain would like to acknowledge the whanau who supported us during our māmās care when she was in hospital to when she came home, those who came near and far, everyone who gathered kai from the whenua and kiamoana from the sea, also whanau who gave mahi in the kitchen who gave unending time. The support of whanau who gathered at home providing so much aroha,

The beautiful korero the beautiful waiaata were so breathtaking we cannot express enough of your presence during our last days with our māmā. To the whanau who were unable to travel we felt your aroha, we felt your tears. Our māmā would have been in awe of her journey as it showed how hearted she was within the community friends and whanau. The support in place while our māmā was going into palliative care, you helped us by giving her comfort at home and supporting her while we had her in our arms. Gone on her journey we will walk through life with you by our sides always. You all are appreciated from the depth of our hearts.
